

SOPHISTICATED SYMMETRY

New Libra by BainUltra® brings balance to the bathroom.

(Québec, Canada. May 7, 2021) BainUltra celebrates balance and symmetry with their latest freestanding tub design – the Libra 6632. Named in honor of the celestial constellation depicting weighted scales, the Libra bathtub embodies the essence of harmony and peace with its flowing lines and sleek elegance. The look is timeless and refined, creating a sweet simplicity that easily compliments any bathroom décor.

Measuring 66" x 32" x 23", the Libra is generously sized to comfortably accommodate two bathers with identical sloping interior walls that relax the body in blissful ease. The tub's exterior is purposefully unembellished, allowing the pure beauty of its simple silhouette to capture full attention. Libra is offered in two configurations with the brand's full spectrum of luxurious therapy options. In the Thermomasseur® category, the tub features 42 adjustable air jets, a heated back rest and their signature Geysair® system to deliver hot-air hydro-thermo massage. As a soaker tub, Libra includes an optional WarmTouchShell® with heating zones contained in the bath's inner shell. Both versions of Libra are offered with the Illuzio chromatherapy option of soothing colored lights for a true sensory bath experience.

Inspired by the stars, the Libra tub is crafted of 100% pure acrylic for impressive long-lasting beauty, and is finished by hand and meticulously detailed to meet BainUltra's high standards for unparalleled quality. This non-porous surface is extremely durable, resistant to stains and scratches, and easy to clean and maintain. The Libra tub is available in a glossy white, with options for a dramatic black and white finish or the brand's Ultravelour matte finish.

Discover the beauty that can be found in understated elegance. Libra by BainUltra is a stunning visual addition to the bathroom, and its amazing menu of therapies makes the tub a natural extension of a wellness-centered lifestyle. >>
