BECAUSE WORKPLACES
CHANGE EVERYDAY

simon

THE CONVENIENCE OF CONNECTING HOW AND WHERE YOU WANT

NOT WANTING TO SETTLE DOWN
IS A WAY OF SETTLING DOWN

Always going from one place to another is something that has been done since prehistoric times. This is a tendency that has re-emerged strongly in our working environment today.

Being able to work in the peace and quiet of a favourite corner and two hours later in the meeting room is like having a million offices rolled in one.

It means making a static routine more dynamic and functional. It means choosing where to sit according to the day, whether or not you need to concentrate, or where the sun is in the afternoon. It means choosing where to sit according to the agenda, meetings or what you need to get done today.

It means returning to your roots.
It means being yourself again.

Simon presents Simon 400; because the workplace changes every day.
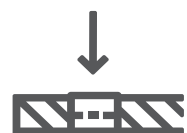

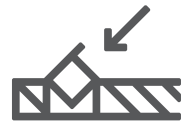

COMPACT

A CLEAN DESK TO FREE YOUR MIND

Simon 400 was born with a single objective: to make desks a totally free space where people can create without limits.

To this end, all the pieces in the new collection take up as little space as possible on the desktop, both physically and visually.

Up to 23% more compact designs in which we eliminate wasted spaces to fully optimise your usable work area so that you can do your work with total freedom of movement, without anything getting in your way.

DESIGN

THE FREEDOM TO BE IN HARMONY ANYWHERE

Being at ease in the workspace is essential to giving the best of oneself. That's why we have focused on every last detail in the new collection.

AN AESTHETIC BASED ON CLEAN LINES

Its austere lines and the clean design elements make Simon 400 an elegant, minimalist and compact collection.

To achieve this, visible screws, the interior vertical lines between functions, and even the frame itself have been eliminated, making the attractive metal cover the only visible element of the piece.

INTEGRATED FINISHES

Simon 400 has two striking finishes: black and white.

Two options that integrate perfectly in any space to make you feel comfortable with your customers, your workers, your colleagues, in short, to make you feel that any space is yours.

FLEXIBILITY

SPACES OPEN TO CHANGE
FOR PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

Explore other ways of relating to your workspace; change, come alive and rediscover your usual space to see it with fresh eyes.

The dynamics of new formats of nomadic workers are now a global reality at all levels of business. A change that has given rise to much more agile spaces, where flexibility and hot-desking are taking their place in people's day-to-day working life.

Simon 400 is a collection designed to address these new needs in the workplace, an ecosystem in constant movement that requires more versatile configurations. To do this, our new collection adapts to your needs.
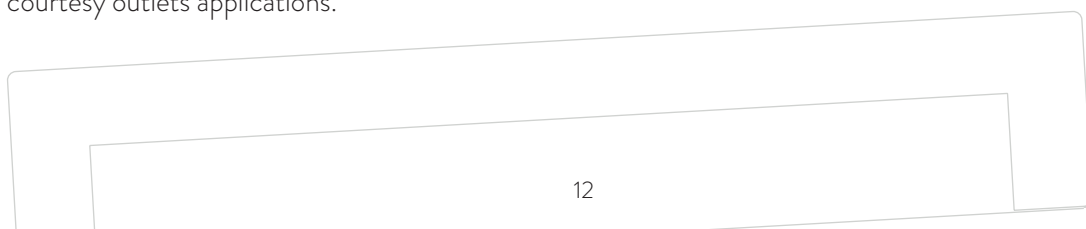

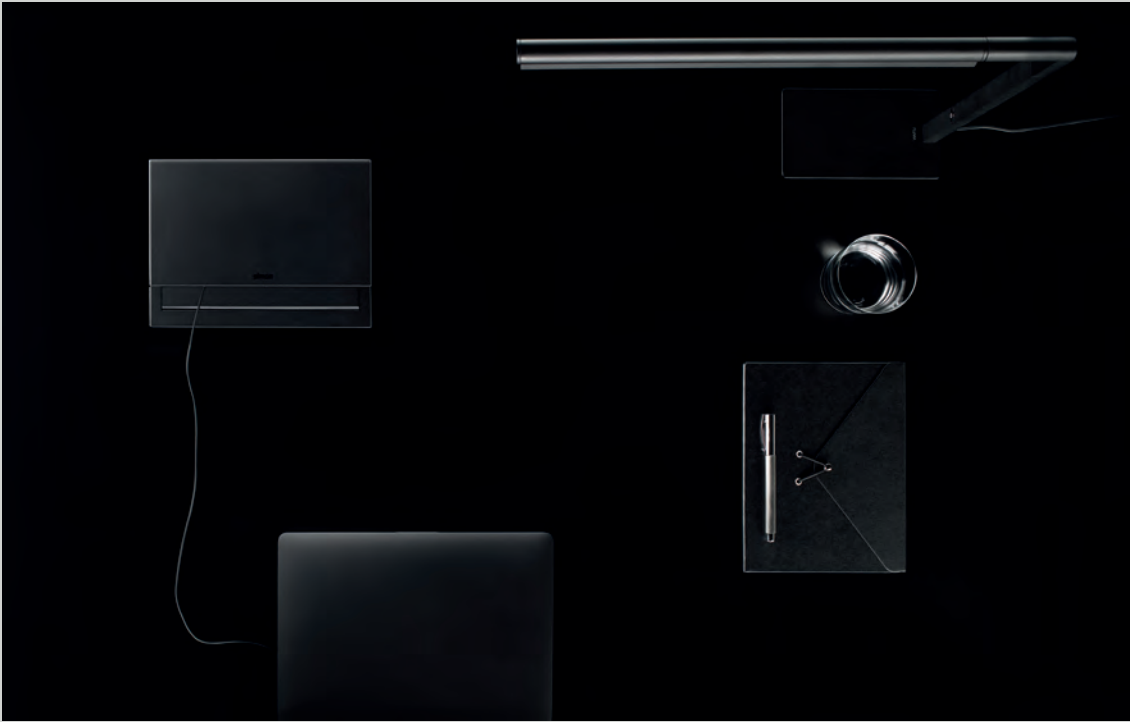

IN-DESK

Solutions designed for flush mounting on the desktop to free up as much space as possible so that desks can be used for whatever each individual wants to do.

Installing them in the desk and having a cover that conceals everything from schuko sockets to USB chargers, RJ45 connectors for data and telephone, and multimedia connectors, means that they go virtually unnoticed. Coming into view only when you need them.

The metal cover is noteworthy. It's an element with subtle finishes that doesn't seek the limelight but remains aligned with the design of the desk to integrate the schuko sockets and connectors for voice, data and multimedia in a natural way.
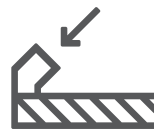

In addition, for meeting rooms that want even more, the in-desk solution is available in a dual-access version, multiplying the possibilities and facilitating its use from either side of the table. There's also a version with sockets for individual connection for tables, individual furniture or courtesy outlets applications.
